GREAT WESTERN
STOVE DEPOT!
Nos. 87, 89 and 91, East Water street,
MILWAUKEE.
THE subscribers having been appointed agents of the PRESQUE ISLE IRON FOUNDRY, (the largest Stove manufactory in the United States,) are prepared to offer to the trade, and to retail customers
A better article of Stoves and at LOWER PRICES, than can be bought at any place west of Albany.
From an experience of ten years in the Stove business in Milwaukee, we have learned what kinds are best adapted to the wants of this country, and have no hesitation in saying, that in point of style, utility and durability, the excel all others brought to this market The designs and patterns are neat and tasteful, and being run from the blast, are not as liable to crack as those run from the pig, for the reason that the latter receives one more melting than the former.
Among our Cooking Stoves may be found the LION and PRIZE, two Stoves that stand without a rival among the "Air Tights." The Lion is a diving three flue stove, with two tops, one for barrel or five pail kettles, and the other for boilers, tea-kettles, pots, &c; also, the KEYSTONE and CHAUTAUQUE FARMER, with elevated ovens. The Keystone is regarded by all who have seen it as the finest specimen of a cooking stove ever presented to the public, and the fact is attested by the large number sold.
The Chautauque Farmer, was designed expressly for the farmers' use, it having no inside or division plates, making the fire-place large and not liable to burn out.
Of the above mentioned Stoves we might give over 500 certificates, proving their good qualities, from persons who have used them; but as we guarantee them to be the best in use, we do not deem it necessary. We have also every variety of Premium and Double-Oven Cooking,
From No 1 to 6; also a great variety of AIR-TIGHT PARLORS!
of splendid patterns, with and without folding doors, together with an endless variety of
PLATE AND COAL STOVES,

MILWAUKEE:

SATURDAY AFTERNOON, FEB. 14.

School Fund Securities.

As an inkling of what may be expected on a full investigation, we give the following sample of security for $350 of school money, loaned to G. H. Barstow, brother of the Ex-Secretary. The school loan mortgage purports to have been executed in February, 1851, and is recorded in December, 1851—some ten months afterward. The land on which this money is loaned, was assessed in 1850, at $55; and in 1851, at $35—and it is said by good business men, that it would not bring $100 to-day, on a forced sale.

But this is not the worst of it. There was, at this time, an unsatisfied judgment of over $70, rendered against Wm. A. and G. H. Barstow, by the Circuit Court of Waukesha co., and in Sept. 1851, another judgment of over $400 against G. H. Barstow and others, was docketed, which is yet unsatisfied. And these judgments take precedence of the school loan mortgage, and constitute a lien upon the land. The certificates of the above facts have been given by the official authorities of Waukesha county. They make their own comment.

A Good Veto.—We rejoice that Gov. Farwell has vetoed the stupendous scheme of A. Hyatt Smith, and others, to get a monopoly of nearly all the Railroad lines in the State, as the foundation of an application to Congress, for a grant of millions of acres of land, for the purpose of building up princely fortunes out of the common inheritance of the landless. Mr. Smith, has been gassing about the Valley Road, until, for aught we know, he may half believe his own stories, and has made some members of the Legislature believe that the funds are already all secured, to build this Road. We do not believe a word of it. We believe it to be gammon, cooked to tickle the palate of the Legislature—on the axiom that a full stomach enlarges the heart—and make them willing to swallow his bill, thus greased. Mr. Smith modestly asked by his bill, authority to build One Thousand miles of Road, in addition to the unfinished, and almost uncommenced job already on his hands, of building a Railroad from Fond du Lac to Chicago.

The newspaper stories about Walkers' loan for the Illinois Central Road, our readers may set down as fiction.

Yesterday's Free Democrat was nothing more than a cold water soup, without salt or grease.—Banner.

Our neighbor seems not to relish this soup—but he will probably like it better when he gets used to it. It may be a little unpleasant at first, but we assure him it is perfectly harmless, and won't hurt him in the least.

Circuit Court.—Yesterday Afternoon.—Thomas Proy vs. Merrick Murphy. Judgment by consent. Damages assessed by the Clerk—$177,39.

J. H. Baker, Esq., admitted to practice.

Fred Hans, admitted citizen.

The Grand Jury found a bill of indictment against Lawson and wife, for rape; against J. Ellis, for assault with intent to kill; against Francis A. Shrager, for larceny; against J. Morfee and Bowman, for passing counterfeit money.

The case of Robert Allen vs. P. N. and G. N. Cushman, was given to the Jury last night, and this morning a verdict of $1200 for pl'ff. was returned.

The Jury were then discharged till Monday, after which some Chancery business was taken up.

Pilfering.—Some persons seem to have attended Mr Bailey's Dancing Parties for profit as well as pleasure, as over-shoes, veils, shawls, etc., have disappeared from the Ladies' Dressing Room, night after night, without the knowledge or consent of the owners. We are requested to state, that if the person who carried off a nice pair of over-shoes, last night, will return them to Gardiners' Hall, the owner will be very likely to get them again. Shoes are not the perquisites of leap year.

Anti-Maine Liquor Law Meeting.—The proceedings of the meeting held at Military Hall, Wednesday evening, will be found in our columns this morning. The Free Democrat styles it an "Anti-Temperance Meeting." It was, in fact, a meeting of those opposed, not to Temperance, but to the enactment of the Maine Liquor Law in this State. The same paper, referring to Dr. Fessel's humorous petition to the Legislature, to prevent the Immoderate use of cold water, says:—

"It is a very amusing document and we hope it will be published in full. We presume if nobody drank any more cold water than its authors, such a law would occasion very little inconvenience."

And we presume that the "authors" of this document drink just as much cold water and are quite as temperate as their assailants.—Sentinel.

The Sentinel comes to the rescue of those who don't ask any of its help. We did not originate the title 'Anti-Temperance Meeting, but translated it verbatim et literatim from the heading of the official proceedings of said meeting, published in the Volksfreund. We called them just what they called themselves, and we presume they will find no fault with it, but they have a good laugh and go and treat, when they see the ludicrous attempt of the Sentinel to make them 'not temperance men.'

Serious Accident.—A man named Jno. Hobbs, residing some five miles from Fond du Lac village, had one of his legs so severely jammed, on the 6th instant, between the wheels of a threshing machine, that it had to be amputated.

The Temperance Meeting last Evening.

Another large meeting of ladies and gentlemen assembled last evening, at Young's Hall, and was called to order by the Chairman, J. H. Paine, Esq.

It was announced that some of the singers were ready with a song. Mr. Taylor, the leader with the fine bass voice, which we have noticed before, and Messrs. A. Hill and E. Gardner, came forward to the stand, and sung, most admirably, a song "prepared expressly for the occasion." To use an expressive phrase, there never was anything that "took" better. The whole audience seemed to join mentally in the chorus—

We are bound to sing all night,
We are bound to work all day,
We are bound to save the Badger State,
And banish Rum away!

The song brought down the house in thunders of applause, which was kept up with increasing enthusiasm, until they came forward and performed a part of it again. It added greatly to the interest of the meeting. And we might here call the attention of our German friends to the fact, that the Temperance men go in for two thirds, and the only desirable thirds, of Dr. Martin Luther's sentiment, which they quote to us. We like song, and we like the ladies; and, what is more, the ladies like us, and like our cause, and come out in large numbers to attend our meetings, and we believe this is more than the other side can say. What an idea it would be, for a lady to attend a meeting called to maintain rumselling!

After the song, the meeting was addressed by Dr. Macnish, in a very clear and able manner, showing conclusively, what has been so often shown before, that alcohol contains no nourishment, but when taken into the system, works only disease, destruction, and death.—He showed how it blunts the moral faculties, and destroys the perception of right and the sense of honor. How those who use it, entail disease upon their offspring. How it prevents men from fulfilling the great purpose of their existence—the development and improvement of their faculties—and degrades them even lower than the brute.

His remarks were received with great attention and cheers. During the evening, repeated invitations were given to those who opposed the Maine Law, to come forward and state their objections; and after Dr. Macnish sat down, Mr. Roesler, with some hesitation, came to the stand.

Mr R. asked to be excused for the imperfect manner in which he spoke our language, saying that he had only been in this country eighteen months, and had only studied English before that, for a short time, in prison, where he was placed for his efforts in behalf of the liberty of his country. He then went on to argue that it is the abuse, and not the use of liquors, which occasions the evil; and that there are many other things which are injurious, if used to excess. He mentioned tea and coffee. And he thought the proper way to treat these things was by moral suasion, and not to attempt to regulate them by law, for that was interfering with individual liberty. He then produced a copy of the Maine Law, and read several sections to which he objected, as being unjust and tyrannical—the one denying the defendant costs, in case of acquittal, and the one compelling him to pay double the amount of damages awarded against him below, in case he appealed and was found guilty in the higher court. He said he never before knew of a law that punished the citizen for appealing to a higher tribunal. He then took up the question of the Sacrament,—said he was a Lutheran, and believed with Luther, that "he who loved not woman, wine and song, remained a fool through his whole life." He said the Maine Law would deny them the right to observe one of the holiest ceremonies of their religion—a ceremony enjoined upon them by Christ himself, who told them to eat the bread and drink the wine in memory of Him. He said the Czar of Russia would not dare to enact such a law, and that the Grand Turk was too liberal to do it, because, while he prohibited wine to those of his own religion, he allowed others to do it. He again apologized for his imperfect use of the language, and said he would detain them no longer. He came, because those who opposed the law had been invited, and he wished to let them see that they opposed it honestly, and believed they were right, and were not afraid to come there and express their sentiments frankly and boldly.

Mr. Roesler was received with great cordiality, and several of his "hits" were loudly cheered. There was a frank and honest boldness about the man, which we liked, and which seemed to please every one.

Dr. Macinish replied briefly, showing that the fact that other evils existed, did not make rum any the less evil; that we could not do away with all at once, but must take one at a time; and that if Mr. Roesler would join to do away with rum selling, we would afterwards join him against tea and coffee, if he could show them to be injurious, as clearly as we can show rum to be so. He asked how many cups of coffee a man must drink before he would go home and kick his wife out doors? He said, that at the Last Supper Christ told his disciples he should not drink wine again, till he drank it new with them in his Father's Kingdom; and claimed that the wine used by Him was new, and unfermented. He justified the stringency of the Maine Law, from the fact, that under all other laws, liquor suits had been notorious shams and farces, and the rum-seller always escaped. And they hated the Maine Law, because it was just the thing that they could not escape from.

Mr. Roesler rose and said, that the juice of the grape could not remain more than eight or ten days without fermenting; and that, as the ceremony of the Sacrament was performed twice in a year, the unfermented juice could not be procured, for both, because, taking the most favorable times, April and November, grapes could not be found at either.

Dr. Macinish said that Germany was a great country, but that every thing did not happen there. That Christ was in Palestine, a country much farther South, where the season was much earlier, and much later, and where grapes could probably be found, from which to procure the fresh juice for the Holy Supper. He said, also, that the Scotch Lutheran Presbyterians used to partake of the Sacrament but once in a year.

Mr. Roesler here rose again and said, that altho' those Scotch Presbyterians might not partake of it more than once a year, there were other churches who did. He said the Catholics took the sacrament just before dying, and according to the Maine Law, the Catholics would not be allowed to die more than once a year! [Great laughter.]

Dr. Macnish said he would be glad if the Catholics were not obliged to die even so often as that. [Laughter.] But he said the fact was, that in the sacrament they did not use wine at all, but used the wafer.

Mr. Roesler said the priest drank the wine for them.

The committee appointed to draft resolutions, here reported, through their Chairman, J. B. Vliet, a preamble and set of resolutions in favor of the Maine law.

Mr. Hastings rose and read the resolutions passed by the Anti-Temperance meeting at Military Hall, and replied to them, briefly and forcibly repelling the charge that temperance men were trying to "deceive and bargain with" the legislature to accomplish their object. He said they were frank and aboveboard—had been so from the beginning, and would be so to the end. He, as did also Dr. Macnish, expressed the greatest respect for Mr. Roesler, and pleasure, that he had come forward and spoken his sentiments.

The question on the preamble and resolutions reported by the committee, were then put, and they were unanimously adopted.—And at a late hour, it being after ten o'clock, the meeting adjourned, all greatly pleased with the proceedings.

☞ No letter from Madison last night.—Reports of the Temperance Meeting occupy a large space in our columns to-day, but as this is a subject of vital interest at the present time, and our city cotemporaries do not seem disposed to pay much attention to the Temperance side of this question, except to oppose the efforts of the Temperance men in behalf of the Maine Law, we must endeavor to supply the deficiency.

Affray at Washington.—A personal encounter took place between Mr. Borland of the Senate, and Mr. Kennedy, Superintendent of the Census, in consequence of some remarks made by the former severely reflecting upon the latter. Mr. Kennedy got his nose broken, and of course came out second best.

Fire at Racine.—Last Thursday evening, a fire occurred in Racine, which destroyed the "Racine Exchange," owned by E. & S. Raymond; loss $6000—insured 3000. Also the clothing store of Moore & Jones, who lost about $300; Hull's clothing shop, loss $200—insured; and Williams' barber shop. Fire supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

Kossuth Meeting at Fond du Lac.—A large and enthusiastic Kossuth meeting was held at Fond du Lac, on the 5th inst., and strong resolutions of sympathy for the oppressed Hungarians who are struggling for civil civil. Also condemnatory of the policy of remaining silent, and allowing Russia and Austria to unite to crush the spirit of liberty in Hungary, and to blot her from the list of nations.

Bible Society.—The annual meeting of the Rock County Bible Society will be held at Janesville on the 26th inst.

☞ At a meeting of the Rock Co. Agricultural Society and Mechanic's Institute, held at Janesville on the 2d inst., a committee consisting of O. Gurnsey, J. P. Wheeler, and J. M. Burgess, was appointed to prepare and forward a memorial to the Legislature, asking for an appropriation to aid in carrying on the operations of the Society.

Down it Fell.—The "Rough & Ready" store-house on East Water St., fell to the ground yesterday. This is looked upon as a sad disaster by the whigs—it being about the last relic of Taylorism in the city.

☞ The Masonic Festival comes off at Gardiner's Hall, on Thursday evening next. It is expected to be a splendid affair.

Gone to California.—Nine hundred passengers left New York for San Francisco, on Saturday last.

☞ The Editor of the Springfield Republican in the course of an article upon the Chinese, says that their cues are worn for two reasons:—One is, that if the owners should run away from the battle, they may be pulled back, and the other, that when life's tale is ended, they may be pulled to the Celestial region.

☞ We learn that maple syrup has been made during the recent warm weather by some of our farmers. This is an unusual thing in the middle of the winter months.—Pt. Wash. Blade.

Washington, Feb. 13.

Capt. Naglee who had been charged with fraud on the government has been honorably acquitted.

The Intelligencer publishes a list of confirmations by the Senate, among them David A. Bokee, naval officer at New York, Oliver D. Peabody, collector at Champlain District, and James R. Emphson of Genessee District. The whigs of Kenton County Ky., at a late meeting, recomended Mr Fillmore as the next whig candidate for President.

☞ The Michigan Central Railroad Co. will lose $15,000 by the burning of their car shop in Detroit, on Friday last. Like the other fire, it is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

Sad Accident.—A worthy and aged citizen of this place received a severe injury in a most extraordinary manner on Saturday last. The old gentleman was engaged in conveying a quantity of crockery on a wheel-barrow. As he was passing a rough place in the road he became alarmed at the rattling of the crockery and run away with the barrow, until it struck a post, and stopped—when the old gentleman was precipitated into the load, and his nose seriously injured.—River Times.

"Westward the Star of Empire takes its way."—Claims are still going forward on the Sioux territory. Houses are building, timber falling, farms fencing, and all "goes merry as a marriage bell." Immigrants, however, need not be alarmed. There are 30,000,000 of acres to be settled—all choice sites. Come to Minnesota, and we will engage to suit you with a capital farm or water power.—St. Anthony Ex.

☞ A specimen of the most beautiful spring wheat we have ever seen has just been handed us by the Hon. B. B. Meeker. It is as plump and fair as the best winter wheat, and we judge would not fall short of sixty pounds to the bushel. It grew in Benton county, a hundred miles north of here, producing twenty-five bushels to the acre.—Ib.

From Madison.

Madison, Feb. 13, 1852.

The principal items of business of the Senate was the veto of the Governor on the bill to amend charter of Rock River Union Valley Railroad.

The objections are partly constitutional.—The bill embraces more than one subject, and the title does not express the object, and that it grants unconstitutional powers.

Also that it grants powers so extraordinary as to be contrary to public policy, allowing the company to build from Beloit to Madison, from Janesville to Lake Superior, from the south line of the State, to Wisconsin River, from thence to Willow River, and from the Wisconsin River to Beaver Dam.

The impression is general that the objections are well taken and that the bill cannot pass.

Fire—Almost.—On Monday morning last, a fire broke out in the rear of R. G. Prichard's brick house, and threatened to burn the entire building. Through the exertions of the citizens, however, the flames were quieted. Sheboygan Jour.

Leap Year—Ladie's Privileges.—The present year is Leap Year, "wherein," as an old author says, "ladyes may go a-courting ye men, and gentlemen shall forfeit a fine of five dollars if they refuse ye addresses of ye ladyes." Be up and stirring, ladies, your peculiar prerogative comes only once in four years. —National Dem.

Bores and Balderdash.—We think Carlyle was guilty of some slight exaggeration, when he prounnced us "eighteen millions of bores." And we fear, Kossuth's experience may lead him to exaggerate both the number of bores and the amount of balderdash among us, unless the Magyar shall make greater allowance than foreigners can well be supposed to make for the potent efficiency of our "fierce democratic," which, in its commendable eagerness to secure, to all, equal rights, sometimes permits bores and balderdashers to usurp privileges. These, in our opinion have had more than their just share of representation, in the intercourse, thus far between the American people and the Hungarian. We know, in respect of political officers, it is often quite impossible to get them filled otherwise than by the smallest possible men since often, in the pressure of our party contests, it is among such, only, that candidates sufficiently "available" can be found. The less there is of a man, the less there is to be said against him, since it is hard to say aught against nought; and the man against whom least can be said, is therefore, the man who can poll the most votes—whether it be to represent the people in the Legislature, or "the friends of Hungary" to Kossuth. The boring and the balderdash to which the hero has been subjected since being in this country, and to which he will doubtless continue to be subjected, so long as he shall remain among us, should be attributed to its true cause.—The bores and the dealers in balderdash, will get more than their share of representation, large as we must admit that share to be.—Clere. True Dem.

☞ A party of eight men, en route for California, arrived here on Monday last. They hail from Keokuk. The gold fever appears to increase, instead of diminish, and we anticipate the departure of more companies, this spring, than at any previous season, since the discovery of the El Dorado.

SATURDAY::::::::::::::::FEBRUARY 14.

Temperance Meeting at Young's Hall.

[Reported for the Daily Free Democrat.]

A large meeting, composed of ladies and gentlemen, which nearly filled the Hall, assembled Thursday evening last, at 7½ o'clock, and was called to order by J. H. Paine, Esq., Chairman.

A good Temperance Song was sung by a few singers in the back part of the room, among whom was an excellent bass voice.

The petitions that had been circulated were sent in to the Secretary, who joined them together and counted them.

Mr. S. D. HASTINGS, Esq., was then introduced to the audience by the Chairman.

Mr. Hastings said he feared that they had come there to be pleased,—to be delighted by bursts of eloquence and oratory. If so, they would be disappointed. He could only lay before them the facts and the arguments for adopting the Maine Law. He first took up License laws, and said their anti-democratic character always makes them unpopular.—Would the people obey a law licensing men to steal, or counterfeit? Certainly not. It was the same with licensing the sale of liquor. A conviction that they were wrong and unjust had taken possession of all minds, and prepared the way for the righteous legislation we are now advocating.

He said, in asking for the Maine Law, we interfered with no man's right. We simply asked for protection. The liquor traffic destroys the virtue and happiness of families, and the welfare of society, and no man has a right to do that. No man has a right to use his own property so as to injure his neighbor.

Temperance men have not heretofore aimed at the right mark. They have directed their attack at the rumseller. This is not right. The traffic is carried on according to law, and the people make the law. The rumsellers are no more guilty, than those who make the laws allowing them to sell. The whole people are responsible, so long as those laws exist. By licensing it, the traffic is made respectable, and an inducement placed before the rumseller to sell more, in order to get back his money. The Maine Law makes the traffic disgraceful, like stealing and counterfeiting,—drives it into the secret places and dens of the earth.

But the great point is, whether this law can be enforced. It can be enforced, because it has been enforced in Maine. And now for the facts. [The speaker here read a number of extracts from speeches made in Maine, and also some statistics, showing that the law had been enforced; that the people there would sustain it; that even the drinking men were in favor of it; that crime and pauperism had greatly diminished, and that fires were much less frequent. These extracts, and those subsequently read by him, have already been published in the Free Democrat, in the series of articles by Mr. Hastings in favor of the law. For that reason, and for want of space, we refer those who wish to examine the facts to our columns heretofore.—Ed.]

Mr. H. then continued. I think I have read enough to show that the law has been enforced in Maine. We don't say that no liquor is drank there; but that, if it is drank, it is done secretly, like robbery and murder. We say it has done away with crime. Without doubt the law will be violated. So are all criminal laws.

But it may be said, that, although enforced in Maine, it cannot be enforced in Wisconsin. I say it can be enforced more easily here, than in Maine. [The speaker here entered into a comparison between Maine and Wisconsin, as to the amount of capital invested in the liquor business, the number of large cities and villages, the amount of floating population, sailors and lumbermen, &c., showing that on all these points Wisconsin is more favorably situated, for enforcing the law, than Maine was. His arguments on this point may be found in his article No. 7, published in our daily of January 28th.—Ed.]

He then proceeded. The law has been enforced in Maine,—why not in Wisconsin? In Portland and the large villages there,—why not in Milwaukee and the small villages here? The obstacles to its enforcement there, were greater than can be found in our State.

But admitting the law to be constitutional, and that it can be enforced, is there any hope of passing it at this session? Are the people ready for it? I answer, they are! (Cheers) Petitions are pressing in. One member presented one with 2,000 names. (It was here stated by the Chairman, that the petitions on the table contained 2,100 names, collected in this city. At which announcement, there was great cheering.) This law secures friends, among those who oppose all other laws. I do not draw on fancy in saying this, but speak from facts. The friends of Temperance are all in its favor. The clergy are in its favor. The press, with few exceptions, are in its favor. (The speaker here read extracts, showing that the Racine Advertiser, Janesville Gazette, Free Democrat, Kenosha Telegraph, Wisconsin Express, and Western Star, were in favor of it, and also stated that the Mineral Point Tribune was in favor of it.) The drinkers are in favor it,—they know that the habit of drinking may, and does, ruin them, and yet they cannot stop while temptation is constantly placed before them. Taxpayers are in favor of it. The ladies are in favor of it,—they seem to see its advantages by intuition. After travelling through the State, I have yet to find the first lady opposed to it. Numerous meetings which I have addressed are in favor it. The Norwegians in Dane county are in favor of it. They could not resist the temptation, but wished to be removed from it. I had some doubt about this at first, and therefore wrote to their representative, who, in reply, informed me that it was true, and that they would sustain the law. (The Chairman here stated that a Norwegian, in this city, had procured 74 names among his countrymen since last week. Cheers.) In Watertown, they are moving in favor of it. Is there, then, any probability of its passage? If the friends of the cause are active and persevering, I cannot doubt it.

I have recently presented this subject to the Legislature. The Hall was granted, and a large number attended and listened attentively. I presented them the facts. I told them of the unpopularity of license laws,—that they were opposed by liquor dealers, and opposed by temperance men,—that they were not right, and could not be enforced. I told them, that if the Maine Law was enacted, and not enforced, we should be in no worse condition, than we are in now,—that it could be enforced where our present law is enforced. I told them the movement was progressive, and if not granted now, agitation would continue till it was granted.

Shall we have such a law? It must be so. Temperance men are united, and determined to have it. People will not be ruined by rumsellers. I have detained you too long, but the deep interest I feel in this subject,—the strong desire I have, that our State should be delivered from the great evils of intemperance, are my only excuse.

Mr. Hastings was listened to throughout, with great attention, and more especially when he was giving the facts as to the enforcement of the law in Maine, and he sat down amid great cheering.

DR. MACNISH then took the stand. He said: I could not help thinking, when I looked around this beautiful Hall, how our angels would look (pointing to the pictures behind him), if, instead of harps, they had bottles in their hands. (Laughter.) From the character given to Milwaukee, I should suppose the bottles would be the more appropriate emblems. I have heard it said, in other places, that the Maine Law could not be enforced here! I denied it. I said I would come here and see. And now I wish all who think they have ever been benefited by drinking grog, to say aye! (There was a solitary and faint aye, the voice of a youngster on the outskirts of the audience.) Who is it? Let the gentleman give his name, and I will write on to Barnum, who would doubtless give something for him. (Great laughter.)

The other side of the question was then called for, and the speaker said: All those who think the use of intoxicating liquors as a beverage, produces nothing but vice, misery, crime, and ruin, say Aye! (A unanimous shout of Aye, went up from all parts of the house.)

I picked up a paper to-day, in which some gentleman was defending the liquor traffic—perhaps the same one who said Aye, here, to-night. He referred us to Italy, France, and the countries in Europe. If we were citizens of those countries, this might do. But we must legislate for things as they are in the U. States. We must legislate for "blue ruin," in the shape of whiskey, and for "rat soup," in the shape of beer. (Great laughter.) That gentleman said the Maine Law would be a violation of our natural rights. I say it would be in violation of no right, but that it is consistent with right, reason, and morality.

The moral laws may be discovered as easily as the physical laws. I never feel any difficulty in presenting a great moral truth to the hearts of men, unless it be perhaps to professional men. If I present it to a Doctor, he examines the books, perhaps goes back to Galen and the other old writers, and assents to it, if he finds it a cording to "correct practice"! The Clergyman examines what Hall, or Chrysostom and the Fathers, have said about it, and finally adopts it, it he finds it to be orthodox! (Laughter.) The legal gentleman hears a moral truth proposed, with the greatest indifference. He is like the man who sat with the utmost composure, during a very affecting sermon, which brought tears to the eyes of all around him, and when asked how he could sit there unmoved, replied, "Oh! it's nothing to me, I don't belong to this church." (Great laughter.) He looks into Blackstone, falls back to Coke-upon-Littleton, examines Justinian's Institutes, and perhaps the whole Roman law, to see whether it is constitutional! Before he will help pull his neighbor out of a pit, he must first know whether it is constitutional! (Laughter.) But I appeal to my fellow-men, who have hearts to feel, and minds to look at things directly, and not with professional prejudice.

In discussing this question, we hear a great deal said about rights. This is, in fact, an age of rights,—natural rights and legal rights, women's rights and right of way! And it may, in truth, almost be said, "whatever is, is right." I love liberty, and I love those who love it; and if I thought this law a violation of liberty or natural right, I would shoulder my old, rusty musket to oppose it. We often hear it said, that men give up a part of their natural rights when they enter into society. But I deny this. I say the rights of society are nothing more than an aggregation of individual rights. Man is naturally a social being, and was born for society. There are no natural hermits. If a man should go and locate himself on some uninhabited mountain, to be a hermit, another would have a right to go and locate there too; and if the former should blow his horn, so as to disturb the slumbers of the latter, he would have a right to stop the music. (Laughter.) A young fellow, filled with the love of glory, once enlisted in the English army. He liked liquor as some folks in this country do, and to get it, he sold a part of his uniform. He was tried, and sentenced to be flogged. The captain asked him if there was any reason why the sentence should not be executed. He said he thought there was,—thought he ought not to be flogged, because he had sold nothing but what was his own. "Your own!" said the captain; "why, man! nothing is your own! Your body belongs to the army, your clothes to the king, and your soul to the devil!" In the same way men belong to society, and have no right to injure either themselves or others.

Some years ago I heard a very eloquent speaker from this city say, that "a child had a right to be born!" That interested the old ladies very much. He then said, that, "after the child was born, he had a right to grow up to be a man." The ladies thought that depended on the fact whether or not, he died with the measles or chicken pox. The right to grow up, gave him a right to the soil, to get a living from. He could fence it cultivate it, use it as he pleased,—but he had no right to dig pitfalls on it, to have his neighbor fall into. Do you see the application? If a grog-shop is not a pitfall, I should like to know what is? Would he have a right to sow Canada-thistles on his land? Certainly not!—And yet Canada-thistles are not half so bad as the crop of "blue-ruin" which the rumsellers are continually sowing for us to reap.—Suppose he should set up a gas manufactory, which should injure the health of his neighbors? It would be destroyed. He might keep cattle, but not such as were wont to push with the horns." According to the Bible, such animals were stoned to death, and if the owner, knowing their habits, allowed them to run at large, he was stoned to death also.—But we don't propose to stone the rumseller! we only send against him "knock down arguments."

But they ask, is this law Constitutional?—It is, at all events, according to the law of God,—and if the Constitution conflicts with that law, that part of it is null and void. The Law is not unconstitutional, but if it were the constitution would be wrong, and we, should have to amend it. Society has a right to repel aggression. This cannot be denied. Is it aggression, then, to spread idleness and cruelty,—to teach theft, arson and murder? If so, rumsellers are aggressors, and we have a right to restrain them. They might as well label their bottles with the crimes I have named.

I am sorry the enemies of the law are not here. I would like to see 1000 here, who drink or sell rum. However stultified their hearts may be, they are still human. They all had mothers, and they can yet be made to hear and feel the truth.

The rumseller knows his guilt! He sees his victim tottering along more and more feeble, every day,—more and more crazed, nearer and nearer to his ruin. He sees this, and he cannot be innocent.

Those who sell rum have been compared to the "wreckers" who formerly lured vessels to destruction. A vessel has been long out at sea, and is on her return. It is announced to him on board, that she will soon be in port. Visions of his home, of his wife and children so long unseen, appear vividly before him, and with eager heart he watches for the shore. On the vessel glides, but in the mean time night comes on, and dark and threatening clouds have gathered over the heavens, and a wild storm bursts upon them in its fury. The Captain stands at his post, and glances at the sky and ship with an anxious eye. He gives the order to "lay to," and fires a signal gun.—It is heard by the wretches on shore, and they are at once aroused by their infernal desire for plunder. They hang out false lights.—These are seen by those on board, and tho't to be on another ship, in a place of safety.—They start for it! The light disappears!—Now it is seen again! On comes the ship amid the darkness and the storm, those on board hoping soon to be in safety. But they are startled from their hopes, by the cry of—"breakers ahead!" It is too late. She dashes against the rocks, and a hundred human beings, perish beneath the waves, in order that the "wreckers" may gather the plunder that floats to the shore! Have we no right to restrain such deeds as this, by law? Yet all the "wreckers" in the world, never worked such ruin to life and property as the rumsellers! Why then have we not a right to restrain them? If we have not, we might as well have no rights at all.

But they ask us why we do not try moral suasion! We have tried it. It has accomplished its work, and its day has gone by.—The magnet will not attract, after its magnetic power is lost; and men who are drinking rum every day, will not listen to the feeble voice of conscience. While you argue with the rumsellers, they are working their ruin.—It is with them, as it was with a couple of fellows who were stealing chickens. Said one,—"Tom! don't you think it's wrong to steal chickens?" "Well!" said Tom—"that's a great moral question—haven't time to argue it now,—hand down another rooster?"—[Great laughter.]

The speaker here read from the U. States Laws, showing that, in relation to selling liquor to the Indians, their provisions were similar to those of the Maine Law, from which fact, he argued its constitutionality.—"But," said Mr. Day, "we are not Indians!" True said the speaker,—but there is another law applicable to white men. They swallow annually vast quantities of drugs and medicines. A Congress has made a law that adulterated drugs may be destroyed; and under that law 20,000,000 pounds have been destroyed. We don't hear a word about that being unconstitutional! Our Revised Statutes give the right to destroy gambling and counterfeiting implements. And we never hear any pretence that this is unconstitutional. Taking the liquor is in the nature of a fine for poisoning,—and as it is fit for nothing else, it is turned out and destroyed.

Nothing short of the Maine Law will answer. In the first place, every body who had a peck of potatoes and a spare bed, was allowed to sell. Then we had a law allowing each town to settle it by a vote. Then came the attempt to make the rumseller responsible for the damage he occasioned, which was difficult, because the amount of suffering to the wives and children of his victims could not be estimated. Such laws cannot be carried out. If the traffic is right,—let every man sell. If wrong,—no one. The Germans were right in opposing these laws.

I think temperance men may be divided into three sorts. Offensive, defensive, and neutral. The neutral, are those who are satisfied with keeping sober themselves. The defensive, may join some organization, but never interfere with others. The offensive beard the lion in his den. Of this class were the Washingtonians, and they did great good.—They attacked the rumsellers, and about this time all decent men were driven out of the business. Perhaps a very few may still be left,—one or two in a State.

The next attack was on the thing itself.—This was common sense,—this was the Maine Law. If we remove the powder, there is no danger; but to remove the keg, and leave the powder, is of little use. The rumseller is the keg,—the rum is the powder.—Take away that, and the drinkers care nothing more for the rumseller. This carries the war not only into Africa, but into the very streets of Carthage.

Shall we have the Maine Law, then? It depends upon you. Milwaukee is always pointed at, as the strong hold of rum. It is said that the European population is so large here, that it cannot be enforced. I don't believe it. I know that population have been oppressed in Europe. The tyrants have allowed them to drink, because they could then more easily trample on their liberties.—But if they remain so here, it is our fault.—We should not take them to grog-shops, to buy their votes for three cents. I hope this is not done, in Miwaukee, though I know it is elsewhere. It depends I say, on you, whether we shall have this law. If you reflect that your voice is as potent, as that of two thirds of the State, you will be more active. Five thousand names can be obtained here, and the law passed! I have an abiding confidence in the great heart of humanity. Shall we rise above other nations on that question, as we have on others, and stand prominent before the world for sobriety and all its attendant virtues and blessings?

Two weeks later from California.

Arrival of the Daniel Webster.

New York, Feb. 13—3 p. m.

The steamship Daniel Webster arrived at her dock shortly before 11 o'clock to day. She brings San Francisco papers to the 17th of January, 111 passengers and $70,000 in gold dust.

The Webster arrived at San Juan on the 30th ult. The steamer United States arrived there on the same day and left the following day for Chagres.

The Webster left San Juan, February 5th at 2 o'clock p. m., bringing the advices by the Independence which left San Francisco at 4 p. m. of January 17th, and thus has been only 26 days and 15 hours between San Francisco and New York. She passed on the 5th ult., an English sloop-of-war, bound for San Juan.

San Juan was healthy—business dull.—The market overstocked by all kinds of goods. On the night of the 4th inst., the most destructive conflagration occurred in the city of San Juan Nicaragua, by which One Thousand buildings in the most populous section of the city, were destroyed.

Among those burned were the buildings known as the United States Hotel, owned by X. F. Manonsus, and the premises occupied by Messrs. S. Shepard, Don Francisco and Company, besides a large number of other houses and stores. The city is not provided with Engines. A detachment of men from U. S. Sloop-of-War Albany, were present and did good service with the Ship's Engine. Capt. Faddo, of the English Brig Success, was also present with his men, and it was chiefly through their extreme exertion that the fire was checked.

The shipment of gold in January by the mail steamer California, on the 16th of Jan., was as follows:

To New York,	$905,556
" " Orleans,	30,309
" London,	233,887

The principal consignees are Page, Bacon & Co., $354,000; Adams & Co., $279,000; Dodr & Co., $112,000; Burgoyne & Co., $100,000, &c.

The California was literally crowded with passengers. The Golden Gate was advertised to leave San Francisco for Panama on the 21st of January. The weather in California has been delightful. There has been plenty of rain and but two nights of freezing. Green pens are in bloom as well as wild and garden flowers.

The absorbing question seems to be the election of U. S. Senator. The candidates talked of among the Democrats, are Col. Weller, Gov. Smith, D. Broderick, Col. Seuly, Judge Ralston and General Justin.

The Whigs, as yet, have named no one.

A new Police for the City of San Francisco has been arranged and Geo. Cassidy appointed Chief, and H. North Assistant.

The steamer Isthmus, from Panama, arrived on the 6th of January.

Antonia Garra, the Indian Chief, arrested for being engaged in the outrages in Southern California, has been shot at the old town of San Diego.

A detachment of U. S. troops were about to march to the Colorado, under Major Heintzelman.

On Thursday, 1st inst., an injunction was laid by Judge Rotlman, on the State officers who were about to remove the public archives from San Jose.

A man named J. J. Adams, late from Philadelphia, was shot at Sacramento City on the 12th of January, by the mother of a young girl he had seduced. After the woman had fired one shot which took effect, she was about to repeat the fire, when she was prevented by the bystanders. Adams is a married man. He lies in a very critical position.

Great excitement exists at Downieville on account of the discovery of new gold mines in the quartz in that vicinity. Six different veins had been turned up within ten days, the ore from which is said to be exceedingly rich. A new daily paper, called the Western American, has been started at San Francisco, by Francis E. Picket, J. C. Mals, James W. Young, C. B. Young and D. D. Barnside.

The trials of Captain Waterman and his mate are still progressing, on other indictments. The crew of the Challenge were to be put on trial for mutiny, about the middle of January.

The extensive Quicksilver works of Bolton, Barren & Co., are now running seven furnaces, the largest of which yields 4000 bottles per week.

A remarkable Soda Spring has been found near Almanda.

The difficulty about the State Capital continues to be a source of much discussion.

The Legislature having determined on meeting at Sacramento, assembled there, for the first time, on the 16th of January.

The members arrived in a body by steamer from Vallejo and were welcomed by the people with shouts. It has given quite an impulse to business in Sacramento City, which was more animated than for many months past.

The Settlers' and Miners' Convention was in session at San Francisco. A resolution inviting the State Officers and Legislature to seats, has been laid upon the table.

An affair of honor came off recently in Marysville, the Ex-Governor being one of the principals.

Business prospects are good. A piece of gold quartz, weighing six pounds, has been taken from the Kentucky ridge, near Newton, supposed to contain about $2000 worth of gold.

The papers contain Governor Bigler's Inaugural Address and Lieut. Gov. Purdy's Address to the Senate. Neither contains anything of much importance. Governor Bigler contends that the Mines should be as free as the air.

Advices from Chili, of January, state that Forts Vallenrio and Coquimbo were blockaded by the Government forces.

The Alta California says that the late Indian war, in the Southern part of the State, has at last been terminated.

The Executive of the State has issued an order to Gen. Roins, to proceed to San Diego and disband the volunteers called into requisition by Gen. Bean.

The Southern mines are represented to be in a flourishing condition, gold being found in the whole range of counties.

The quartz mine at Salt Springs, is said to be the richest in the country.

Gov. McDougal, in his message, recommends the holding of a Convention for amending the Constitution of the State.

Adams, referred to as being previously shot, was married to a young lady on Friday evening, and shortly after died from the effects of the wound.

Goods were shipping in moderate quantities to the interior, and prices without change.

The sales of Flour was confined almost entirely to small lots.

Business steady; Barley dull at 75½c.—Dry Goods, a fair business doing.

Provisions, great and little doing.

On departure of steamer well seasoned lumber of the Atlantic seas was in good demand. Clean gold dust 15,20a15,25 Mexican Dollars worth 4 per cent premium.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE PACIFIC.—The Collins steamer Pacific, Capt. Nye, 14 days from Liverpool, arrived at New York, Wednesday, 11th inst. The advices are four days later from Europe.

The steamship Glasgow, bound for New-York, put back in distress.

Cotton had advanced one-eighth of a penny, and was active. Grain market firm, with advancing tendency. Wheat in fair request at very full prices. Flour had advanced 6d per bbl.

Paris, January 27.

The Moniteur publishes the names of the 72 members of the Senate, and also some decrees appointing Mr. Henriade, Director of Commerce, Mr. Rouzieh, Director of Fine Arts, and Mr. Pietre, Prefect of Police.

The salaries of the new Councillors are fixed as follows: President, 80,000 francs; Presidents of Sections 35,000; Councillors of State, 25,000 francs each.

The Moniteur also contradicts the rumors of fresh measures of severity on the part of the government.

M. Montalembert and some other members of the consultation committee, had resigned, in consequence of the decree promulgated respecting the Orleans family.

M. Baroche is appointed Vice-President, and is to preside in the absence of the President. M. Maillard is President of Committee of Debates, and M. Rohan, of Legislative affairs.

The Ministry is definitely constituted as follows: M. Abbatryee, Minister of Justice; M. Peghoux, of Interior; M. de St. Armand, of War; M. Bennux, of Finance; M. Duchasse, of Foreign Affairs; M. Fortont, of Public Instruction; M. de Maupus, of Police; M. Casabranca, of State Department, and M. Le Fevre, of Public Works.

The Moniteur says that the Government will not resort to any exceptionable measures to maintain tranquility. Three men were arrested by the Police on the 23d, charged with being engaged in riots. Firearms and Socialist writings were discovered at their lodgings.

M. Jules Lefebre, President of the Civil tribunal of the Rhone, has been arrested on the charge of exciting inhabitants to civil war.

The Grand Ball in honor of the restoration of the ancient palace of the Kings of France, came off on the night of Sunday, January 25. At few periods was the Palace more numerously attended. Almost every noble family was represented.

One of the papers states that in consequence of the Engineers' strike in England, the French had received heavy orders from other countries.

Liverpool, Jan. 29.

The latest Telegraph dispatch from London, states that the report of a threatened invasion of England is quite current in London. [Invasion from where?—ED.] The Government ordered 30,000 stand of arms from Birmingham, and 25,000 troops, into London.

The Daily News says that orders have been sent out, recalling the principal ships on the Tagus, and others in the Mediterranean.

The Morning Chronicle says that the King of the Belgians, as the husband of the daughter of Louis Phillippe, protests against the decree concerning the Orleans property, and it is thought that similar protests will be made by Spain, Naples, the Brazils and Luxemburg.

GREAT WORK ON CIVILIZATION.

This valuable work, has just arrived at

C. OTT'S BOOKSTORE.

It is the work of the age. From a large number of liberal and highly complimentary notices of this work, from the religious and secular press, we only select the following:

"This admirable work is at length before us, and we hasten to inform our readers of the valuable addition, which has thus been made to the Literature of our country. The work is by far the most important of its kind, ever published in this country. It is in fact a complete library in itself, condensed and so arranged as to bring the whole question within the grasp of the humblest reader. It appears most appropriately at the present time, and will, no doubt, prove an instrument of great efficacy in the work of diffusing sound doctrines on the matters of which it treats."—Truth Teller april22

CHICAGO BRASS AND BELL FOUNDRY

H. W. RINCKER,

NO. 198 RANDOLPH STREET, CHICAGO

Also on Canal street, opposite Foss' Planing Mill

THE Proprietor of this establishment is now prepared to cast bells of all sizes. He would particularly invite those who wish to purchase Church Bells, to those of his manufacture. His bells will be sold on as reasonable terms as they can be purchased from the east, or from agents of eastern establishments. They will be sold cheaper in fact, because he can make as good a bell, that will give a larger volume of sound as those of eastern manufacture with one-fourth less weight of metal, and this proportion of money is thus saved in the purchase of the bells. He warrants them not to break for one year with proper usage, and should one fail or not prove to be as good as represented, it may be returned to his shop, and be made good without expense to the purchaser, by a recast or be replaced by a new one. If one should break any time during his life, he will re-cast it for half the expense of casting. Western people will see the advantage in dealing with a western man, and patronize western interests.

Mr Rincker is a German bell founder by profession, and he is confident that he thoroughly understands his business.

He will cast bells to any key or tone that may be desired; he can also cast his bells to chime in harmony. Heretofore the chiming bells used in this country have been brought from Europe (but he is able to make them as correct and musical in tone as any that may be imported.

His bells have taken the premiums at the two late Fairs of the Chicago Mechanics' Institute—the last Fair awarding him a gold medal. The following is the copy of the report of the committee on the bells submitted for inspection to the Fair of May, 1850.

Article 11, Class No 6, Church Bells.

A bell of 740 pounds, by H W Rincker, of this city is well made and a smooth casting. It exhibits a great degree of skill in its manufacture; has an admirable tone and throws a greater volume of sound than any bell of its size; a trial was had between the above bell and one manufactured by Mr Meneely, of Troy, N Y, the latter being considerably the heavier of the two—955 pounds. The arrangement for ringing Mr Rincker's bell was temporary and by far inferior to that of Mr Meneely's, notwithstanding which we believe that there was but little difference in the distance that the two bells could be heard, and that the tone of Mr Rincker's bell was by far the most pleasing to the ear. A Gold Medal was awarded to Mr Rincker.

The above is a true copy of the Report

G R SLOAT, Secretary

Board Directors Chicago Mechanics Institute

Mr Rincker is also prepared to do all kinds of Brass work, casting and finishing, on short notice and in good style, such as machinery, magnetic machines, physical instruments, soda fountains, beer pumps, stop-cocks, oil globes, etc. etc.

Also heavy Copper work for all purposes.

Old Brass and Copper purchased, and taken in exchange for bells, at the market prices.

For the Removal and Permanent Cure of all

NERVOUS DISEASES,

And of those Complaints which are caused by an impaired, weakened or unhealthy condition of the

NERVOUS SYSTEM.

This beautiful and convenient application of the mysterious powers of GALVANISM and MAGNETISM, has been pronounced by distinguished physicians, both in Europe and the United States, to be the most valuable medicinal discovery of the Age.

Dr. CHRISTIE'S GALVANIC BELT

is used with the most perfect and certain success in all cases of

GENERAL DEBILITY,

Strengthening the weakened body, giving tone to the various organs, and invigorating the entire system. Also in FITS, CRAMP, PARALYSIS and PALSY, DYSPEPSIA or INDIGESTION, RHEUMATISM, ACUTE and CHRONIC, GOUT, EPILEPSY, LUMBAGO, DEAFNESS, NERVOUS TREMORS, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, APOPLEXY, NEURALGIA, PAINS in the SIDE and CHEST, LIVER COMPLAINT, SPINAL COMPLAINT, and CURVATURE of the SPINE, HIP COMPLAINT, DISEASES of the KIDNEYS, DEFICIENCY of NERVOUS and PHYSICAL ENERGY, and all NERVOUS DISEASES, which complaints arise from one simple cause—namely,

A Derangement of the Nervous System.

☞ In NERVOUS COMPLAINTS, Drugs and Medicines increase the disease, for they weaken the vital energies of the already prostrated system; while, under the strengthening, life-giving, vitalizing influence of Galvanism, as applied by this beautiful and wonderful discovery, the exhausted patient and weakened sufferer is restored to former health, strength, elasticity and vigor

The great peculiarity and excellence of

consists in the fact that they arrest and cure disease by outward application, in place of the usual mode of drugging, and physicking the patient till exhausted Nature sinks hopelessly under the infliction.

They strengthen the whole system, equalize the circulation of the blood, promote the secretions, and never do the slightest injury under any circumstances. Since their introduction in the United States, only three years since more than including all ages, classes and conditions, among which were a large number of ladies, who are peculiarly subject to Nervous Complaints, have been

when all hope of relief had been given up, and every thing else been tried in vain!

To illustrate the use of the GALVANIC BELT, suppose the case of a person afflicted with that bane of civilization, DYSPEPSIA, or any other Chronic or Nervous Disorder. In ordinary cases, stimulants are taken which, by their action on the nerves and muscles of the stomach, afford temporary relief, but which leave the patient in a lower state, and with injured faculties, after the action thus excited has ceased. Now compare this with the effect resulting from the application of the GALVANIC BELT. Take a Dyspeptic sufferer, even in the worst symptoms of an attack, and simply tie the Belt around the Body, using the Magnetic Fluid as directed. In a short period the insensible perspiration will act on the positive element of the Belt, thereby causing a Galvanic circulation which will pass on to the negative, and thence back again to the positive, thus keeping up a continuous Galvanic circulation throughout the system. Thus the most severe cases of DYSPEPSIA are PERMANENTLY CURED. A FEW DAYS IS AMPLY SUFFICIENT TO ERADICATE THE DISEASE OF YEARS.

CERTIFICATES AND TESTIMONIALS

Of the most Undoubted Character,

From all parts of the country could be given, sufficient to fill every column in this paper!

AN EXTRAORDINARY CASE,

"Truth is stranger than Fiction."

CURE OF RHEUMATISM, BRONCHITIS, AND DYSPEPSIA.

REV. DR. LANDIS, A CLERGYMAN

of New Jersey, of distinguished attainments and exalted reputation:—

SIDNEY, New Jersey, July 12, 1849.

DR. A. H. CHRISTIE—Dear Sir: You wish to know of me what has been the result in my own case, of the application of THE GALVANIC BELT AND NECKLACE. My reply is as follows:

For about twenty years I had been suffering from Dyspepsia. Every year the symptoms became worse, nor could I obtain permanent relief from any course of medical treatment whatever. About fourteen years since, in consequence of frequent exposure to the weather, in the discharge of my pastoral duties, I became subject to a severe Chronic Rheumatism, which for year after year, caused me indescribable anguish. Farther: in the winter of '45 and '46, in consequence of preaching a great deal in my own and various other churches in this region, I was attacked by the Bronchitis, which soon became so severe as to require an immediate suspension of my pastoral labors. My nervous system was now thoroughly prostrated, and as my Bronchitis became worse, so also did my Dyspepsia and Rheumatic affection—thus evincing that these disorders were connected with each other through the medium of the Nervous System. In the whole pharmacopoeia there seemed to be no remedial agent which could reach and recuperate my Nervous System; every thing that I had tried for this purpose had completely failed. At last I was led by my friends to examine your inventions, and (though with no very sanguine hopes of their efficiency,) I determined to try the effect of the application of the GALVANIC BELT AND NECKLACE, with the MAGNETIC FLUID. This was in June, 1846. TO MY GREAT ASTONISHMENT, IN TWO DAYS MY DYSPEPSIA HAD GONE; IN EIGHT DAYS I WAS ENABLED TO RESUME MY PASTORAL LABORS, NOR HAVE I SINCE OMITTED A SINGLE SERVICE ON ACCOUNT OF THE BRONCHITIS; AND MY RHEUMATIC AFFECTION HAS ENTIRELY CEASED TO TROUBLE ME. Such is the wonderful and happy results of the experiment.

I have recommended the BELT and FLUID to many who have been likewise suffering from Neuralgic affections. They have tried them, WITH HAPPY RESULTS, I BELIEVE IN EVERY CASE.

I am, dear sir, very respectfully yours,

ROBERT W. LANDIS.

DR. CHRISTIE'S GALVANIC NECKLACE

Is used for all complaints affecting the Throat or Head, such as Bronchitis, Inflammation of the Throat, Nervous and Sick Headache, Dizziness of the Head, Neuralgia in the Face, Buzzing or Roaring in the Ears, Deafness, which is generally Nervous, and that distressing complaint, called Tic Doloreux.

DR. CHRISTIE'S GALVANIC BRACELETS

Are found of vast service in cases of Convulsions or Fits, Spasmodic Complaints, and general Nervous Affections of the Head and upper extremities. Also in Palsy and Paralysis, and all diseases caused by a deficiency of power, or Nervous Energy in the limbs or other organs of the body.

☞ Many hundred Certificates from all parts of the country of the most extraordinary character can be given, if required.

☞ No trouble or inconvenience attends the use of DR. CHRISTIE'S GALVANIC ARTICLES, and they may be worn by the most feeble and delicate, with perfect ease and safety. In many cases the sensation attending their use is highly pleasant and agreeable. They can be sent to any part of the country.
